Omaha has a way of showing contempt for the Legislature, for the law and for everything not germane to Omaha. Then they will come down here and get the Legislature or individuals in the Legislature to bail them out of the problems that they have created for themselves by ignoring the law and by trying to run roughshod over the Legislature. So I think Senator Koch, if he will, should state what it is that causes him to move in the way that he is, and if he would frankly say whether or not he feels that more pressure is being brought on Omaha to live up to fire safety codes than other parts of the state, and if that is what he thinks the problem is, then the most appropriate thing I believe to do would be to contact those officials who are in charge of enforcement of fire safety codes and regulations and see that the job is done equitably, not by reducing the type of enforcement in Omaha but bringing it up throughout the state because safety, safety should be of equal concern wherever people go into buildings, especially children, older people or those who, if a fire broke out, for whatever reason would have difficulty in finding safety. So, Senator Koch, that is what I would like to hear from you before I could even consider something like this.

PRESIDENT: Excuse me. The sole question before us is whether to consider this matter today or tomorrow. Now the Chair would like to ask you to refrain from the discussion of the merits of this matter and the question is only whether we are going to discuss it today or tomorrow because the motion is to suspend the rules. Senator Barnett.

SENATOR BARNETT: Well, you caused a little problem there.

PRESIDENT: That was my purpose.

SENATOR BARNETT: I thought that might be it. That's why I thought I would question why do...

PRESIDENT: It is going to be discussed, the merits of it will be discussed tomorrow for sure but Senator Koch has asked for suspension of the rules so that it can be taken up at this time rather than tomorrow and that is the matter that should be debated and voted on right now.

SENATOR BARNETT: I guess it doesn't make any difference what I have got to say now, then.

PRESIDENT: Senator Koch.

SENATOR KOCH: Mr. President, I refer to Rule 4, section 7 and I am requesting that privilege instead of the suspension. It takes 25 votes to refer this resolution to a Standing Committee.

PRESIDENT: Rule 4, section 7, page 22. You are asking... what is your motion, then, Senator?
